AN EXHIBITION BY BIRKIN HAWARD
BEN JOHNSON

Birkin is a practising architect returning to painting in 2009, exhibiting several times in Salthouse Church. His work is primarily concerned with buildings and landscapes and lean heavily on his long standing connection with North Norfolk.

Ben is considered to be one of the outstanding painters of structure and space of his generation. He relates to an artistic tradition that dates back to the Renaissance and Vermeer art, but also drawing inspiration from Kandinsky, Tatlin and the Banhams. His paintings, prints and drawings are held in public collection throughout the UK, including the Victoria and Albert Museum, the British Museum, and the Tate Gallery.
